THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade, &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them cry, puff and blow, hot stew. LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at B. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

TO-MORROW.

Tuesday, the 3rd day of November, 1868, and its results, will form a momentous era in the history of the United States. It is perhaps the most important election ever held since the organization of the government, and the choice which the American people will make, will either prove the turning point in the arrest of usurpation and revolution and the restoration of the Constitution, or must accelerate greatly the advancement of Radical ideas and the ultimate overthrow of the Republic.

We confess that the bare thought of the destruction and final overthrow of liberty in this once happy land, is most bitter and distressing to us. We have been anxious to put off that evil day—to defer it to a long, long period from the present, if it must come, but, with the utmost charity for the hopeful prognostications of our opponents, we cannot, however anxious we are to put a bright side upon the future, disconnect, in our thoughts and convictions, the downfall of the Republic with the success of Radicalism. These forebodings are not based upon any uncharitable views of character and intentions in the person of Gen. Grant, should he be elected, but in the system of Radicalism itself, of which he must be in that event the leader and promoter, or share the fate of his predecessor, Andrew Johnson. The history of the Radical party proves it to be an implacable, persistent and ever-active prosecutor of its designs, never turning aside to listen to the pleadings of patriotism or humanity or statesmanship, but, bent upon its aim, ever facile in its expedients, yet never changing its purposes, it goes steadily forward to do its work, trampling under its feet or throwing off the track any impediments which lie in its way. It in this contest, the Democracy, the only conservative, constitutional party in the country, cannot check its progress, we may hope for the best, believing that God still rules, but with fearful anticipations that free government and constitutional liberty have fled the country, never to return.

But we are far from being hopeless of the results of the effort which shall be made to-morrow by the Democracy for the salvation of the Republic. The energy, the hopeful spirit and the activity which animate the friends of freedom in all parts of the country, bid us to work and labor and hope for a glorious result. It has not been infrequent in the history of our elections, that the triumphant party, just before the final contest, had discouragement and gloom. The Democracy never before had such imperious reasons for the exertion of all their powers as at present. The prize of success was never so tempting and the consequences of defeat were never so dangerous and damning. Let them do their utmost, and, with a hearty good will, let them labor and look for the breaking of the day!

THE ISRAELITES.—Large numbers of persons of the Israelitish faith have settled in this country, and have shown great sobriety and enterprise, and the disposition to become permanent settlers in the country by the purchase and improvement of real estate or lands. It is stated that large numbers of Israelites who were voters in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, refused to take any part in the State and local elections of those States recently, but they have resolved to be at the polls in the Presidential election and will vote against Grant and Colfax. The Israelites are not Know-Nothings, and therefore will not vote for Colfax, nor can they vote for Grant because of his manifest opposition to them on religious grounds, as plainly evinced by his military order during the war, expelling them from their homes and by his reply to his superior, when he was ordered to rescind the order. They will rebuke the insult and the injustice at the polls.

COLFAX was put on the radical ticket to secure the electoral vote of Indiana. The reflection that he lost to his party 13,000 or 14,000 votes, must be highly mortifying to his vanity.

BE ON THE ALERT, friends of Seymour and Blair! See that all our friends REGISTER AND VOTE!

NATURALIZED CITIZENS.

According to law a foreign born citizen, on his arrival into this country, intending to make it his home, signifies to the proper authorities his intention to become a citizen of the United States and five years after obtains from the Court his papers of naturalization. At that moment, of course, he becomes a citizen and is at once entitled, by law, to all the rights and privileges of the most favored citizen. A short time previous to the election in Pennsylvania, a large number of foreign born citizens, who had formally signified their intention to become citizens, but who had deferred taking out naturalization papers, became anxious to vote in the pending election, applied to the proper Court and took out the evidences of their citizenship. When the election came on, the votes of thousands of these German and Irish citizens were thrown out by the Radical inspectors, upon the plea that they were fraudulent voters or had not been naturalized long enough before the election.—This caused to some extent the defeat of the Democracy in Pennsylvania. It has since been shown that the charge of fraud was a ruse of the Radicals, and that their own agents had imposed upon an intoxicated man, and put into his pocket, without his knowledge, a batch of fraudulent naturalization papers.

It has now been made apparent, that the same game will be sought to be played in New York. More than this, several of the leading Radical journals are beginning to revive Know Nothing ideas and are contending that the law must be changed, so as to require a residence for some time after they have taken out their naturalization papers, before foreign born citizens shall be allowed to vote. Every naturalized foreigner in the country should check this movement in the bud, and resolve to put it down, by voting for Seymour and Blair.

These very papers, and the Radical party, sustain the Reconstruction acts of Congress, which make every colored man in the South a citizen and a voter, however ignorant or depraved, who are totally incapable of government, but are ready to prevent the voting of foreign born whites, however intelligent, even after they have become naturalized citizens. They left the despotisms of Europe to enjoy the liberty of a free country; will they despise the freedom of the Republic by voting against Seymour and Blair, the leaders of the Democratic party, the only party pledged to the maintenance of civil liberty, the Constitution and the Union, in this contest? We hope not.

BE CAUTIOUS—BE PRUDENT.

While the important issues of to morrow demand the utmost activity and exertion on the part of every Democrat and Conservative in the State, yet we cannot be too careful in what each one says and does, in order to avoid unnecessary excitement and to prevent disturbance at the polls.

We would ignore our principles or professions were we to attempt to throw any impediment, while we are exercising the right of freemen ourselves, in the way of others. If we cannot persuade by the force of our appeals, others to vote with us, it is plainly our duty to leave every one to his own convictions of duty and to the exercise of a free choice in the election. While we assert our right to vote as we please and should maintain and exercise it, we would exhibit a very poor appreciation of that right, were we to endeavor to prevent its exercise in others.

While therefore it will be necessary to have near the polls, our most active and energetic men to instruct and to furnish tickets to our friends and those who desire to vote with us, and to prevent them from being misled by others, yet it is all important that the same privileges should be accorded to others which we claim for ourselves.

In a word, let us be calm, considerate and active from morning till night, avoiding all good grounds for complaint on the part of our opponents. Let us excel them in zeal, in propriety, in working energy, in forbearance, and in those proofs of honesty and good citizenship, which correspond with the intelligence, the virtue and the worth which we may claim without ostentation, as belonging to the Conservative and law abiding character of the Democratic organization.

BE ON THE ALERT—VOTE EARLY.

The arrangements settled upon by those who have the management of the election in this City, to hold the polls in four boxes at the front door and windows of the Court House, will, we think, afford ample opportunity to every voter to cast his vote without difficulty or molestation. It will be necessary of course that those having charge of the election, should prevent the crowd from obstructing the avenues to the boxes, and in no instance to allow privileges to members of one party which are not granted to the other. The manifestation of fairness, on the partof those who conduct the election, will at once check any disposition to obtrude improperly upon the regulations. A fair election is all that we ask, and this will not interfere with any proper efforts which may be made to secure the votes of those who are believed to be ready or inclined to vote with us.

Let our friends then be at the polls early and exert themselves to secure the full vote of our friends, seeking a full, but a fair and peaceable, election.

"The Sentinel admits that Grant and Colfax will be elected, but says their election will complete the ruin of the country."—Woman Insulter.

The Sentinel has not made the admission that Grant and Colfax will be elected. It is only among the possibilities, but we still have strong hopes of the election of Seymour and Blair. Our gloomy anticipations if Grant and Colfax are elected, as to the effect upon the country, originate only in our convictions that the Radical party is the spoils party and the party of despotism.

HORACE Greeley, of New York, is the Radical candidate for Register in New York city.

ORDER OF GENERAL MILES.

We take pleasure in publishing the following order from Gen. Miles, the military Commandant of this District, because it breathes the proper spirit, and assures the public that the troops under his command will be confined to the object of placing them here, i. e. the preservation of order and only after the civil authorities are unable to suppress any disorder which may arise. So far as our counsel and influence can effect it, we will exert them in aid both of the civil and military authorities, in the preservation of order. The compliment bestowed by Gen. Miles upon the people of North Carolina is well deserved. We have anticipated no disorder at the election. None can or will occur, unless members of the Radical party provoke it. Ignorant and vicious persons contribute to disorder, by hastily circulating rumors, or by acts indicating a purpose, on the part of Leagues and Clubs, to produce it. Democrats and Conservatives will not provoke it. They desire nothing but peace and a fair election, and it only remains with the Radical party to preserve order, by acting in a generous and kindly spirit. Read the order, and let every citizen resolve that there shall be no disorder:

HD'QRS DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA,
Raleigh, N. C. Oct. 30th., 1868.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 10.

The distribution of troops being now complete in this District, occasion is taken to remind all officers commanding posts and stations, of the necessity of careful compliance with existing instructions and orders, and especially to fix attention to the object of their presence, in the different localities, which is solely for the preservation of peace, and the rendering of assistance in case of disturbances or riotous proceedings, which the civil authorities may be unable to suppress.

Under no circumstances will officers or soldiers fraternize with political parties, or in any manner interfere with the peaceable exercise, by all citizens, of their rights and privileges as such. The conduct of the troops has so far been satisfactory, and, with proper judgment on the part of officers, no cause for complaint need be occasioned.

To the citizens of the State, it is only necessary to remark, that the political campaign has so far progressed with a degree of quietness and good order creditable to all concerned, and it is to be hoped that such may be the case until its conclusion. The record of North Carolina is as yet unmarred by acts of lawlessness, which have in some instances so injuriously affected other communities, and the present exercise of moderation and wisdom will hereafter be the source of much satisfaction to her citizens. The credit which will be conceded to all parties should such a gratifying result be attained, cannot but be productive of good results.

The dispositions of troops are such as to warrant the belief that with the assistance of law-abiding citizens the civil authorities will be enabled to preserve the peace and bring to justice those who may be so inconsiderate and thoughtless as to attempt its violation.

If lawlessness must prevail let it be, where it has been heretofore, beyond the limits of this State. The interests, happiness and future prosperity of her citizens will be promoted by discouraging and preventing acts of violence. The laws are ample to maintain and preserve the rights of all classes.

BY ORDER OF BVT. MAJOR GENERAL NELSON A. MILES:

CHAS. B. GASKILL,
Captain 40th. Infantry.
Bvt. Lieutenant Colonel, U. S. A.
Act'g Ass't. Adjutant General.

GOV. GRAHAM AND MR. BOYDEN.

Partisan feeling and violent, intemperate language ill become gentlemen whatever may be their convictions of duty. Men are too apt at such times to attribute improper or bad motives to those opposed to them. We confess we have not been surprised so much at anything during the canvass in this State, as at the following remark attributed to Mr. Boyden in his speech at Concord, last Tuesday, in regard to Gov. Graham, by the Concord Press. It is as follows:

"Graham has got an interest at stake—he'll get 30,000 dollars if Frank Blair carries out his revolutionary measures, and that is the reason he is working for their election. But they can't buy me E. All their money is gone when they buy Boyden. I am honest, but William A. Graham is not."

There surely must be some mistake about this. Gov. Graham has certainly not justified such a slander by anything he has said or done. He has certainly not given Mr. Boyden any cause for such an attack on him. Hence, we can hardly think that Mr. Boyden was understood.

IT is stated that the radical Mayor of Washington has dismissed the white city physician, and has put a negro quack in his place. White women, who in sickness are compelled by poverty to resort to the public provision for relief, have to admit this negro quack to their bedsides as their medical attendant.

THE radicals in Ohio cut down two or three democratic flags, and the democrats took their revenge in cutting down the radical majority.

GEORGE Francis Train is nominated to Congress in opposition to John Morrissey. Greeley is on the Radical ticket against both.

Ben Wade has so far made the hugest joke of the campaign. "I tell you," said he, "Grant will have peace if he has to fight for it." That is like the father who declared he never swore himself, and he'd be d—d if he would allow his boys to swear!

The New York "Tribune" will be obliged to "cave" before the "Times" on the "horrible." The latter is at least two paces in front in declaring that "the ex rebels of Louisiana seem detetermined to butcher all the Republican office-holders in that State."

NEGRO COMPETITION.—Dr. Brown, having a row of houses to build the past season, brought from Virginia a party of negro workmen—carpenters, bricklayers, and stonemasons—whom he employed to erect his houses. These men, coming from the old slave system of the South, he hired at much less wages than the current rates of this city, thus underbidding and choking off the regular working mechanics.—Wil. (Del.) Commercial.

[Would that all the North could thus feel the results of their folly.]

FORNEY undertakes to show "how the land lies," and succeeds only in showing how he lies himself.—[Prentice.

THE NEW ORLEANS FIGHT BETWEEN WHITES AND BLACKS—THE NEGROES PROVOKED IT.

The following plainly truthful account of the recent fight in New Orleans is from the Picayune. It shows how false are all the Radical stories concerning that unfortunate affair:

"About 10 o'clock last night, as the Workingmen's Club were serenading at the residence of Mr. Thomas Hare, 165 Poydras Street, they were passed by the Grant Colored Club, marching down St. Charles St. As soon as the Workingmen finished their serenade they resumed their march down St. Charles, about forty paces in the rear of the negroes. From there to the corner of Canal the negroes constantly assailed them with offensive and insulting epithets. Anxious to avoid a difficulty, the white men bore their taunts in silence, and preserved a demeanor which utterly precluded the idea of any hostile design.

Reaching the corner of Canal street, the colored Club divided, a part going up each side of the neutral ground, so as to keep the Workingmen constantly in their rear. This insult, too, was put up with, until Carondelet street was reached and passed. About half way between Carondelet and Baronne streets the negroes halted, and a part of them turned back, and thus brought their men face to face with the white club.

At this juncture a negro broke from the ranks of his own club and rushed into the centre of the white club, shouting at the top of his voice, "Come on, let's clean them out!"

It was not in human nature to endure all this; certainly not in the nature of men smarting under recent outrages and taunts borne in silence for an hour. A shot was fired by a negro from the ranks of the returning party, which cut through the cap of a gentleman named Richardson. It was then that the white men returned the fire, and a general engagement ensued. There was a wild rush, a fearful mingling in a death struggle of the white and black element, and a quick and rapid discharge of fire-arms all along the line. The angry throng bent and swayed in the mad struggle, and men were locked in a passionate embrace which held the issues of life and death. Above the moan and shout of the angry combatants the sharp report of pistols sounded like the echoes of a skirmish line before the continuous roar of battle breaks on the ear. It was scarcely a minute, and yet blood ran red on the streets, and dead negroes lay stretched on the ground. It was scarcely a second's time before six lay dead on the street, and two more were borne back by their fellows mortally wounded. The negroes fought wildly, and were evidently in mortal dread at the terrible retribution they had provoked. The white men, on the contrary, were skilled in the use of arms, and most of them had before kept step and line in the fury of the battle. They were not alarmed at the shout of the parti colored foe, for they had seen hostile pennons bend and shake in a melee when men died by hundreds. They knew that the time had come to teach a lesson, and the least show of timidity would stimulate the negroes and their cowardly associates to drench the city in blood. There was, therefore, no giving back and no wavering from the conflict.

While the head of the column of the Workingmen were thus engaged, the rear formed into line, and marched to their support. It was at this moment the negroes fled. Broken and discomfited, they ran in every direction. Although they had provoked the conflict, and had been themselves the assailants, yet the attack ceased the very moment that resistance was at an end.—They were not pursued, and no advantage taken of the victory gained. Throughout the conflict the negroes numbered two to one. It was this excess of forces no doubt which incited them to the attack. They knew the white men had borne in silence taunts such as they were not accoustomed to endure, and believed that they could with impunity advance another step in their hostile aggressions, and perhaps provoke an encounter which would redound to their advantage. In this they were mistaken.—Short of actual violence anything would have been put up with; but the people of New Orleans had too long and too seriously suffered from the brutal insolence of negroes, urged on as they are by cowardly whites, to permit their rights as citizens and their very manhood to be trampled in the dust. When assailed they had a right to resist—they did no more.

The conflict began at the corner of Carondelet, and extended as far up Canal as Burgundy street. Here it ceased.

As far as heard from at 12 o'clock last night six negroes were killed, two mortally wounded, and one slightly injured.

Among the whites a Mr. Richardson was wounded in the head slightly by a bullet; a newsboy named Dooley was shot in the wrist, and a man named Ryan injured in the leg by a spent ball or glance shot.

A few minutes after the riot ceased a large body of negroes, numbering about four hundred, marched up Basin and Rampart streets from Congo Square, where a large Radical meeting had been held.—They had evidently heard of the disturbance, and had come to participate in it; but before they reached the scene all had become quiet. They offered no violence to any one, and went on their way as if nothing had happened.

GEN. REYNOLDS TO BE RELIEVED.—Although no order has been issued relieving Gen. Reynolds from command of the Military District of Texas, it is generally believed in well informed circles that such an order will be issued, and that very speedily. Gen. Buchanan will probably be appointed his successor.

According to the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette the President had some days ago fully determined to make this change in consequence of General Reynolds' outrageous order regarding the Presidential election in that State; but the late order of this military satrap assuming to dictate decisions for the civil courts of Texas will precipitate the President's action in removing him from position the power of which he has so grossly abused. The command of this military district was properly due to Gen. Buchanan, as he is the ranking officer. Gen. Reynolds received it at the time in consequence of being senior only by brevet.—Wash. Express.

A Radical newspaper in this city is very much concerned about the importation, by the "rebels," of "seventeen shooters." Perhaps they want them as an off-set against the muskets that have been going South for the last three years, for the arming of negroes.

A seventeen shooter is a good thing to have when a man is surrounded by savage negroes, who are organized, armed, and drilled by radical incendiaries.

It is to be most sincerely hoped that the use of these seventeen shooters will never be necessary; but, if they shall become so, it is equally to be hoped that they will first be employed on those who are inciting the blacks to disaffection, and who are making the whole South a volcano, liable, at any moment, to eruption.—Chicago Times.

Mr. Everett, in 1838, described the Southern States, after travelling over them, as holding "a population as intelligent, as prosperous, and moral, as religious, as any to be found on the surface of the globe."

Also, a building Lot of 8 acres with two small buildings and Barn. Also, an undivided one-third interest in about 700 acres, more or less, of fine farming Land lying around Holtsburg on the Yadkin River, upon which is a fine Water Power unexhaustible as the Yadkin itself.

We will also sell, at the Court House door in Newbern, on Wednesday, 9th of December, at 12 o'clock, on same terms, that magnificent Plantation upon which the late Col Evans resided, situated 7 miles from Newbern, containing about 5 000 acres, known as the Guston place, or Beachwood. This is one of the very best places in North Carolina. The lands are of the very finest quality known in the Eastern part of this State, which is famous for its prodditiveness. The whole place is underlaid with one vast marl bed, immense quantities of which Col Evans used on the plantation. The marl is near the surface and easy to get at, and in inexhaustible quantities. There is a flourishing young Orchard on the place. Col. Evans having set out 4,000 Fruit Trees of the choicest varieties in 1860-'61. The improvements consist of a frame Dwelling House with five rooms, and all necessary out-houses for servants, carriage-house, &c. A large proportion of the place is ditched and drained and under cultivation, and is admirably adapted to cotton, corn, oats, hay, and all the products of this climate. There are also on the place large quantities of pine and cypress timber. Bryce's Creek, which is navigable, runs through the place, and on it and near the dwelling House is a very fine water-power where Col. E. had large Grist and Saw Mills, which were destroyed during the war.

Also, the Long Lake Plantation, situated about ten miles from Newbern and three from the Guston Plantation, containing about 3,700 acres more or less. It has upon it a large Dwelling House. The lands are of the finest quality and underlaid with marl. A large proportion of this tract is in Timber of the best quality.

Also, the Speight or Cutler tract, immediately opposite Newbern—across the Trent river—(upon which is located James City)—consisting of about 566 acres, more or less. This land is nearly all cleared and in cultivation, and is valuable for being so near the City of Newbern.

Also, 100 Shares of Stock in the Atlantic & N. C. Railroad, and 8 shares in the Clermont Bridge Company.

We will sell, on Thursday, 10th of December, in Morehead City, on terms above mentioned, the following City Lots:

" 10 " 5.
" 11 " 14.
" 12 " 3.
" 14 " 7.
" 73 " 9.
" 160 " 13, 14, 15.
" 162 " 1, 2, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16.
" 164 " 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13.
" 115 " all the lots.

And an undivided one-fourth interest in a tract of Land about 3 miles from Morehead on the Railroad and Sound, of about 100 acres, known as Oceana.

Also an undivided interest in a tract of Land near the town of Newport, in Carteret County, owned by said Evans and J. M. Morehead.

On Thursday, 17th of December we will sell in Pittsboro', Chatham County, at the Court House, at 12 o'clock, on same terms, the La Grange Lands, consisting of about 2,530 acres, more or less, lying in the County of Chatham, on Deep River—I said Evans' interest in said lands. These lands are very valuable for farming purposes, and contain very extensive Coal beds, some of which have been successfully worked and large quantities of coal taken therefrom. The improvements consist of a good Dwelling House with six rooms, servants' houses, Gin house, Barns, &c.

Also, all Col Evans' Stock in the LaGrange Mining, Manufacturing and Transportation Company.

Also, those valuable Grist and Saw Mills on Deep River, known as Evans' Mills which are now in operation. The supply of water is constant, and the Mills are admirably located for an extensive and successful business.

Also, an undivided one-twentieth interest in the Chalmers Plantation.

Also an undivided one-fourth interest in a Tract of Land in Moore County, on which is a valuable Gold Mine.

Also, an undivided one-fifth interest in the Mc-Iver Copper Mine and Land in Chatham County.

Also a Lot in Carbonton.

Also, 73 Shares of Stock in the Cape Fear and Deep River Navigation Company.

NEW YORK.
Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURE, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the 'Universal' the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, as in either case, lives long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent. greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

RALLY DEMOCRATS!

We are requested to announce that the three Seymour and Blair Clubs of this City, the Western, Eastern and Middle Ward Clubs, will all meet this evening (Monday) at 7 o'clock, at the Western Ward Club Room. All are invited to attend. Accommodations will be prepared for all. Business of importance will be transacted. Let all the members of the Clubs attend.

Swift Creek Barbecue.—The Barbecue and Mass Meeting at Martin Jones,' on Saturday, gotten up by that gallant band of patriots, the Seymour and Blair Club of Swift Creek, was a glorious affair. The crowd, both of men and of ladies, was very large, and, in addition to other exercises, the people were addressed by Gov. Bragg, Maj. G. H. Wilder, M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., and Maj. Seaton Gales. Full particulars (crowded out by the hour at which we make up our forms on Saturday night) will be given to-morrow.

Hypercritical.—A typographical error occurred in our leader on Saturday, headed "A Word of Warning," which escaped our notice. We wrote hypercritical, but the type by mistake put it, hypocritical—a word we by no means intended to use.

Sheriff Lee.—We are assured by the Sheriff that the rumor in regard to the order from the Leagues to its members to go upon the election grounds with bludgeons, &c., is wholly unfounded, and that as a peace officer he will countenance nothing of the kind. He is disposed to do his duty and assures us that he will discharge it with impartiality and promptness. That is all we ask, and we shall not be backward in giving him due credit for the faithful performance of his duty.

Tickets.—The Radicals and the Woman Insulter have intimated that bogus tickets have been printed at this office. The intimation is false. Most of our tickets have been printed plain on white paper and black ink with the full Democratic ballot. The same tickets, and none others, have been printed in black ink on colored paper, as they have been ordered. Colored inks are not used in our office. We have printed no bogus or deceptive tickets of any kind nor have any such been printed in this office. We hear of bogus tickets intended to deceive, but so far as we can learn, they have been printed at the Standard office and nowhere else.

Bank of North Carolina.—It is rumored that the Bank of North Carolina will be forced into Bankruptcy, for the reason that some of its creditors have sued the Bank. We do not state this as certainly correct, but state it as rumor. Should the Bank go into Bankruptcy, its object will be to secure to all its creditors, alike, a prorata proportion of its resources, and to save all it can for its creditors. The President and Directors of that Bank are honest men and are among our best and most reliable citizens, and will do justice to every man. If in the untoward circumstances which have befallen the country, when its finances and every thing else have been upturned, our best financiers have erred in judgment and have not shown the sharpness of others, it is simply mean and wicked to intimate, in the slightest degree, incompetency or infidelity, on the part of any director or officer of that Institution. To hold on as at present, would be to pay all its assets to brokers and others, who are buying up its bills.

Sion H. Rogers and J. T. Deweese.—The Woman Insulter is alarmed at the strength and popularity of Col. Rogers.—When it arrays Deweese against Rogers, puffs the one and decries the other, it should remember the people of this District know Col Rogers and intend to elect him. That's all.

Rev. Dr. Yeomans, the learned divine from Great Britain, has assumed his duties as President of Princeton College.

THE N. C. BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.

The thirty-eighth session of this body was held in Hillsboro, last week, having commenced on Wednesday morning last. In the absence of Rev. James McDaniel, of Fayetteville, who has presided over its deliberations for so many years, Rev. S. G. Mason, of Yanceyville, Caswell County, was elected President of the Convention. Rev. J. L. Carroll, of Oxford, was elected Secretary. Quite a large and respectable delegation, representing the different sections of the State, was present. Rev. J. B. Jeter, D. D., of Richmond, Va., Rev. John A. Broadus, D. D., of S. C. and Rev. T. B. Kingsbury, of Tennessee, were present. We learn that liberal contributions have been made to several benevolent enterprises under the control of the denomination. The next session of the Convention will be held in Newbern, in November, 1869.

The dedication services of the new Baptist Church building just completed took place on Tuesday night last, and the sermon preached on that occasion by Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., of this city, was very highly spoken of. The church edifice is said to be one of the finest of its size in the State, and its completion at this time reflects great credit upon the Baptists of Hillsboro.

We learn from a delegate that the citizens of Hillsboro sustained their time honored reputation for hospitality, and that they had made ample preparations for the accommodation of a much larger number of delegates than was present. We have the promise of a more complete account of the proceedings of the Convention.

Raleigh and Gaston Railroad.—The Henderson Index says:

"The able and efficient management of our Raleigh & Gaston R. R. have recently placed on it a new and handsome coach, manufactured at the Company Shops, and of the latest and most improved fashion.—One or two more will be on in a few days. They have also had much of the track laid with new iron entire, and are now engaged in further perfecting it so as to make it equal to any for comfort and pleasure.—The officers deserve the greatest credit for their energy."

The Mayor of Wilmington has published a proclamation regarding the election to morrow, and appealing for the preservation of peace. He has also appointed thirty-six special police for the occasion, consisting of twelve Southern gentlemen, twelve Yankees and twelve negroes.

Mr. Nicholas N. Nixon, an old and valued citizen of Wilmington, died in that city last evening. He has been suffering for years past with a cancer, which has finally caused his death and thus bereaved his family.

It has at last been discovered why so many corkscrews were included in the "stationery" of Congress last session. They were needed to let Butler out.

The radicals claim all the morality.—Judging from the columns of their organs they have also all the brazen's.

The New York Herald has within a few days become quite enamored with Gen. Frank Blair, since his visit to New York.

The Election in Indiana.

The following is the result in Indiana on Congressmen:

Districts.	Republican.	Democrat.
First	16,626	18,120
Second	12 343	18,779
Third	14,003	15,565
Fourth	13,413	13 297
Fifth	15 715	14,683
Sixth	16,454	16,582
Seventh	16 245	15,568
Eighth	17,233	14,946
Ninth	15,367	14,636
Tenth	16,501	14 228
Eleventh	15,489	14,368
	170,569	170,702
Democratic majority		133

It will be seen that the Democrats have a majority in Indiana on the Congressional candidates, which is the true national test involved in the election. It is evident, therefore, that our friends can certainly carry Indiana for Seymour and Blair in November if they will only work, as we presume they will, with energy and zeal.—Cincinnati Inquirer.

THE VOTE IN THE SOUTH.

In a few days the long suspense will be over. The general result will be known, and in surveying the field we are led to hope that the South will show a power ample enough to protect itself from the degrading government of ignorant negroes and base white men.

The State of Alabama, Georgia and Louisiana are claimed by our friends as certain to poll conclusive Democratic majorities; and we beg our countrymen in the Old North State when the column moves not to be found struggling in its rear with unhappy Tennessee.

There is this grand opportunity for North Carolina to regain in part the control of her own fortunes, and we trust that she will not neglect.—Norfolk Journal.

Educational.—It is reported that in the South the schools and colleges for both sexes are at present more numerously attended than in any previous year. At the University of Virginia there are over 500 students. At Washington College, over which General Lee presides, there are nearly 400, and at the Virginia Military Institute over 250.—Emory and Henry, in Washington county, opened its fall session with nearly 300.—Hampden Sidney has nearly or quite 100. Randolph Macon, at the latest accounts, had about 75, and daily accessions are being made. Richmond College has largely over 100.

Good Lord Deliver Us!—Gen. Howard has just sent in his annual report. He asks a continuance of the Bureau, which amazes us after hearing from him some little time ago that it would wind up in January.—Why this change? Are the negroes more incapable of taking care of themselves since the late elections, or is there a better chance of continuing the Great National Clothing Store and Grocery with a profit to the keeper?—Norfolk Virginian.

Gen. Forrest Challenges Kilpatrick. In a letter to E. H. Shackleford, of New Haven, Conn., just published, Gen. Forrest denounces Gen. Judson Kilpatrick in unmeasured terms, and refers him to General Basil Duke, of Louisville, who will receive any communication which Kilpatrick may deem proper. The letter refers to remarks made by Gen. Kilpatrick.

REGISTER! Do not forget it. Every thing depends upon your registration and your vote.

Washington Evening Express, 30th.

THE OUT LOOK.

There has been a manifest reaction in the public mind since the recent elections, and men now see and comprehend clearly enough that there was really nothing in the results at all warranting Radical exultation on the one hand, nor the discouragement on the part of certain faint-hearted Democrats on the other.

On the contrary, it is now plainly apparent the effect has been to induce the rank and file of the Democracy to work harder than ever, not only to regain lost ground, but to place the election of Seymour and Blair beyond question.

All over the land, there is a great awakening indicative of this determination.—The Radicals see it and feel it. They keep up a show of confidence by empty and noisy boasting, by persistent misrepresentations of men and measures, and by the most scandalous imputations upon personal character. These are ever the devices of desperate, if not despairing demagogues, and so far from disheartening the friends of Constitutional liberty and free Government, they ought to animate them with fresh courage and strengthen their determination to win.

There are signs throughout the so called military reconstructed States that Radical calculations there are to be as badly disappointed as we think they assuredly will be here in the North. The carpet-bag office holders, and the emissaries from New England, are finding it a much harder job to "ring in" the negro than they anticipated. The negro, in fact, is rapidly finding out that these intruders are not their friends, but their enemies—no matter what their professions may be—and as a result of that conviction, when election day comes along, we suspect a good many votes that were anticipated for Grant and Colfax from that class of population will be found on the other side.

Courage, then, friends, one and all, and everywhere. But turn to account the few days that intervene between now and Tuesday next, and we feel certain we shall have the unspeakable gratification, this day week, of announcing not only that all is well, but that the victory we have all been looking for so long is so thorough and complete that Radicalism, with its concomitant abominations, is buried so deep out of sight as to make its reconstruction at any future time impossible.

"Let the Union slide," said Banks.
"We need a little blood letting," said Chandler.
"Let us have peace," said Grant.
Great Heavens what a party.
They have "let the Union slide."
They have had not only a little, but an ocean of blood letting.

And now, as some leading Radicals, Gen. Schenck, we believe, explains it, Grant's peace is a "piece of triangular steel, called a bayonet."

And such a party as this the American people propose to retain in power.

What a great people we are—to what a pass the Great Republic has come!

Our history as a free people is perhaps written. The end of such rottenness, ignorance, fanaticism, or whatever else it may be, cannot be doubtful.—Harrisburgh Patriot.

An ex Governor of Ohio, noted as an advocate of total abstinence, once had his sympathies aroused by an unfortunate, who had buried three wives. "The Lord has indeed deeply afflicted you," said the Governor. The mourner, sobbing, replied: "Y-yes, he has," said, pausing a moment and wiped his nose, continued, "but I don't think the Lord got much ahead of me; for as last as he took one I took another."

Pennsylvania polled 653,000 votes. Compared with the next largest vote ever given—that of 1866—it reveals these results:

	Vote.	Per cent.
Democratic increase,	31,295	10 7-10
Republican increase,	23,790	7 7 10

That Minister Johnson has made effective efforts for the satisfactory settlement of the Alabama difficulty is no longer a matter of mere speculation, and that a protocol will directly be agreed upon is believed.—Data, in Sun.

At the November elections the people of Minnesota, Iowa and Missouri will vote for (or against) negro suffrage.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, Oct. 31, P. M.

Butler's motion to dismiss suits against him in Baltimore, as a breach of his Congressional privileges, was denied and the trial will proceed.

Treasury employees, who resign, are allowed one month's leave of absence, with pay. Others on the black list, if they persist in efforts to remain, will be summarily dismissed.

The debt statement will show little change.

Grant, by order of the President, issues an order, calling the attention of persons, engaged in the naval or military service, to the laws forbidding their interference in elections.

Gov. Bullock, of Georgia, is here.

In the case of Tyler versus Defrees, to recover possession of property sold under confiscation, the Court confirmed Defrees in possession during Tyler's life. The opinion was delivered by Judge Carter. The case was heard by a full Bench.

Revenue for the fiscal year to date is fifty millions.

It is denied that Evarts has given any opinion regarding double distilled Whiskey.

SEWARD'S CLOVEN FOOT.

Auburn, Oct. 31, P. M.

Secretary Seward addressed a large meeting, to-day. He defended Johnson's policy and disapproved the course of the Radical party. He would not take the sword or put it into another's hand to undo what had been done, if it were unnecessary or unwise. He thought that the distrust of the Democrats felt by a large portion of the people, ought to be respected. He says that he confides in the Republican party, who saved the Union and abolished slavery. He believes that the success of the Democrats would delay the restoration of peace and harmony.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, Oct. 31, P. M.

Gen. Steedman, to-day tendered his unqualified resignation as Superintendent of the Metropolitan Police.

George L. Cain is acting Superintendent pro tem of police.

The Commissioners state, this evening, that they intend to appoint a Superintendent, on the recommendation of merchants and underwriters.

General Rousseau, by request, last night, visited the Club rooms of the Innocents—the club which was most prominent in the troubles with the negroes, and in which considerable feeling still exists, on account of the deaths and wounding of several of their members.

In a sharp speech Gen. Rousseau warned them that the responsibility for all outrages and disorders in New Orleans was laid on his shoulders, and that he looked to them to keep the peace and encourage others to do the same. He said he felt it his duty to tell them that the law must be observed, and that every man, who has the right, shall vote unmolested on the election day.

General Rousseau was enthusiastically received. The Clubs pledged themselves to obey his wishes.

During the recent troubles, the presence of the United States uniforms was always sufficient to restore order.

Rousseau's force of troops in the city at no time exceeded a few hundred men.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has suspended the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated blows the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and it sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be grateful remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.
